INTERLOCAL AGREEMENT

PU 09-02

This Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Clark County ("County"), a county of the State of Washington and the City of Vancouver ("City"), a municipal corporation of the State of Washington for the purpose of authorizing a combined public defense contract for indigent clients assigned to District Court Recovery Courts. This Agreement is made pursuant to the Interlocal Cooperation Act, Chapter 39.34 RCW, and has been authorized by the governing bodies of the County and the City.

WHEREAS, the County and City have a constitutionally mandated responsibility to provide public defense services to eligible persons entitled to representation in Clark County and the city of Vancouver as authorized by law; and

WHEREAS, Clark County as part of its criminal justice system has District Court Recovery Courts designed to assist indigent misdemeanor clients who have substance abuse issues; and

WHEREAS, on April 1, 2007 Clark County began collecting a 1/10 of 1% sales tax increase specifically to support county-wide substance abuse treatment with a portion of those funds being designated to expand the District Court Recovery Courts; and

WHEREAS, beginning in 2008 the County and City both began to receive annual funding from the 1/10 of 1% sales tax increase in order to provide additional public defense services for clients assigned to District Court Recovery Courts; and

WHEREAS, in the interest of efficiency and providing the best customer service it is the desire of the City and County to combine their indigent defense contracts related to the District Court Recovery Courts beginning in 2009.

NOW, THEREFORE, the signatories to this Agreement agree as follows:

1. Purpose.

It is hereby understood and agreed by the County and the City that they will utilize a portion of the funds provided by the 1/10 of 1% sales tax to provide additional legal counsel for clients assigned to the District Court Recovery Courts and authorize a combined contract for these public defense services.

2. Organization.

No separate legal or administrative entity is created by this Agreement and this Agreement does not affect the organization or functions of the parties, except as provided herein.

3. Contract

The County, through its Indigent Defense Program, shall be responsible for soliciting proposals for the District Court Recovery Courts indigent defense contract and contracting with the selected firm or individual. The County will provide the City with copies of the proposals received for the Recovery Courts contract and the City will have up to 15 working days to review and comment on the proposals. The selected contractor must be acceptable to both the County and City. The initial contract with counsel for Recovery Court services shall be for two (2) year periods with the initial joint contract being January 1, 2009-December 31, 2010.

4. Term of Agreement

The term of this agreement shall be for four (4) years beginning January 1, 2009 and terminating on December 31, 2012. This agreement may be extended for two (2) additional two (2) year terms by mutual agreement.

5. Termination

The County indigent defense contracts, including the combined City/County Recovery Courts contract, are two-year contracts. This Agreement may be terminated by either party with written notice provided by September 1st in the year that the County indigent defense contracts are due for renewal (2010, 2012, 2014, 2016).

6. Funding

The County currently provides the City with annual funding to provide legal counsel to the City's indigent clients who are referred to the District Court Recovery Courts. Under the terms of this Agreement, the County will provide annual funding for indigent defense representation of the City's indigent clients who are referred to the District Court Recovery Courts in an amount not to exceed $40,482 for 2009 of and $42,101 for 2010. Since the program is fully funded by the 1/10 of 1% sales tax for District Court Recovery Courts, there will be no additional funding obligations from the city to fund this program.

7. Amendments.

This Agreement may be amended by written mutual agreement of all the parties hereto.

8. Liability.

Each party shall defend, indemnify, and save all other parties harmless from any and all claims arising out of that party's performance of this Agreement.

9. No third-party beneficiary.

By execution of this Agreement, the parties do not intend that there be any third-party beneficiary of the rights or obligations created herein.
