Welcome to your trail system. Your local and regional trails create community connections and encourage outdoor recreation. The growing number of your neighbors who enjoy Vancouver and Clark County’s more than 80 miles of trails.

Featured Regional Trails Legend

- Pedestrians: Always control your horse and be aware of other trail users.
- Horseback Riders: Be alert for equestrians and cautious so as not to startle horses.
- Parking fees: May be in effect at some locations. Contact the site manager to inquire about parking fees.
- Boat Launch: Public Redrests, Non-motorized Boats, Public Restrooms, Park Stalls, Park: Shelter(s), Horseback Riding, Park Area, Viewing Area, Sports Fields(s), Tailwater Play, Swimming, Pedestrian Tunnel.

Trail Rules
- Dogs and other domesticated animals must be leashed.
- Other non-domesticated animals are not allowed. Other rules may vary by jurisdiction.
- Discharge of firearms or air-powered weapons prohibited.
- Use trash bins where available or pack out your litter.
- Stay on designated trails. No motorized vehicles, except those that qualify under the Americans with Disabilities Act.
- Use caution near lakes and rivers. Always motorize safely. Do not motorize on public property.
- Respect the special needs of disabled trail users.
- Parking fees may be charged in some locations. Contact the responsible government agency or check their website for more information.
- Scotty’s Warm Welcome/Fire-affected areas: Always control your speed and yield to all other users.
- Be alert for equine and cautious so as not to startle horses.
- Before you use the trail, check with the stewardship group for trail conditions.
- Always control your horse and be aware of other trail users.
- Use the fire lines designated.
- Cleaning up your waste is everyone’s responsibility:
  - Remove horse waste from trails and parking areas and on hard surfaces for the safety of other users.
  - Do not feed or water your horse on the trail.
  - Be trail-friendly.
  - Do not push other trail users.

Columbia River Renaissance Trail & Discovery Historic Loop
- Parking: 1.5 mi. Difficulty: Easy. Surface: Asphalt & crushed rock.

The Columbia River Renaissance Trail connects downtown Vancouver to the picturesque Columbia River waterfront. It runs along the Columbia River, past the Kaiser Shipyard Viewing Tower, Marine Park, Water Resources Education Center and tomatoes Cove, and ends at Willard Park.

Frenchman’s Bar & Vancouver Lake Trail
- Parking: 0.1 mi. Difficulty: Easy. Surface: Asphalt.

A green jewel in the heart of Vancouver, this shared-use trail parallels Burnt Bridge Creek and offers excellent opportunities for walking, cycling, jogging, and viewing. You can discover old growth, then open grasslands and restored wetlands to picturesque views of the Columbia River and Mount Jefferson. Red-tailed hawks, Great Blue Herons and resident bald eagles add to the spectacular vistas.

Salmon Creek Trail
- Parking: 0.5 mi. Difficulty: Easy-moderate. Surface: Asphalt.

This shared-use trail connects two jewels of the county’s regional parks system: Vancouver Lake Park and Frenchman’s Bar Park. Along the trail, discover views of Mount St. Helens, Mount Adams, and Mount Jefferson. Red-tailed hawks, Great Blue Herons and resident bald eagles add to the spectacular vistas.

Moulton Falls Falls & Lucia Falls Trails
- Parking: 0.6 mi. Difficulty: Easy-moderate. Surface: Crushed rock.

The parks at Moulton Falls and Lucia Falls include 325 acres of older-growth forest, waterfalls, rock formations and residential bird, and wildlife. Salmon Creek Park at Klineline Pond is a popular destination for birding.

Captain William Clark Park & Trail
- Parking: 0.6 mi. Difficulty: Easy-moderate. Surface: Asphalt & crushed rock.

In 1855, Meriwether Lewis and William Clark established a camp near Cottonwood Beach where they secured provisions for the return trip east through the Columbia River Gorge. Two hundred years later, Captain William Clark Park at Cottonwood Beach was opened as part of the bicentennial celebration.

Lacamas & Lacamas Park Trails
- Parking: 0.5 mi. Difficulty: Easy. Surface: Crushed rock.

The Lacamas Heritage Trail parallels the southern shoreline of Lacamas Lake. It provides opportunities to observe waterfowl and wildlife along the west side of the lake. The trail offers picturesque, scenic views of Lacamas Lake and provides opportunities for walking, cycling, and viewing.

Burnt Bridge Creek Trail
- Parking: 0.6 mi. Difficulty: Easy-moderate. Surface: Asphalt.

A green jewel in the heart of Vancouver, this shared-use trail parallels Burnt Bridge Creek and offers excellent opportunities for walking, cycling, jogging, and viewing. You can discover old growth, then open grasslands and restored wetlands.

“In every walk with nature one receives far more than he seeks.” - John Muir

“Take a walk outside. It will serve you far more than pacing around in your mind.” - Erich Opatu