

City of Vancouver, Washington

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, child abuse and neglect are a serious problem affecting every segment of our community, and finding solutions requires input and action from everyone; and
- WHEREAS, nearly 2,300 Clark County children were subjects of child abuse reports in 2023; and
- WHEREAS, the Arthur D. Curtis Children's Justice Center responded to over 700 children who were the most seriously harmed by physical and sexual abuse and sexual exploitation in 2023; and
- WHEREAS, child abuse can have long-term psychological, emotional, and physical effects that have lasting consequences for victims of abuse; and
- WHEREAS, effective child abuse prevention programs succeed because of partnerships created among the courts, social service agencies, schools, religious organizations, law enforcement and the business community; and
- WHEREAS, we acknowledge that we must work together as a community to increase awareness about child abuse and to promote the social and emotional well-being of children and families in a safe, stable, and nurturing environment; and
- WHEREAS, prevention remains the best defense for our children and families.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Anne McEnery-Ogle, Mayor of Vancouver, Washington, do hereby proclaim the Month of April as: in the City of Vancouver and urge all citizens to recognize this month by dedicating ourselves to the task of improving the quality of life for all children and families.

“ Child Abuse Prevention Month ”

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Vancouver to be affixed this 15th day April 2024.

Anne McEnery-Ogle
