

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and
- WHEREAS, public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and
- WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and
- WHEREAS, public servants include teachers, doctors and scientists, train conductors, astronauts, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians and social workers and countless other occupations. Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and
- WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Anne McEnery-Ogle, Mayor of Vancouver, Washington, do hereby proclaim May 7 - 13, 2023, as:

“Public Service Recognition Week”

Across the City of Vancouver and encourage the community to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels - federal, state, county and city.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Vancouver to be affixed this 8th day of May, 2023.
