RULE 1: GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 1.1 Authority and Application. These rules govern the administration of the Civil Service System of the City of Vancouver and are promulgated pursuant to the authority granted by Section 7.03 of the Vancouver Charter, Chapter 2.57 of the Vancouver Municipal Code (“VMC”), and Chapters 41.08 and 41.12 of the Revised Code of Washington (“RCW”). These rules are applicable to all proceedings before the Civil Service Commission related to all full-time, fully paid employees of the City of Vancouver’s police and/or fire departments with the exception of the following: police chief, fire chief, deputy police chief and assistant police chief. These rules should be read in conjunction with the applicable provisions of the Charter, Municipal Code and State Statutes.

- 1.2 Purpose and Scope. The purpose and scope of these Rules is to ensure that the Civil Service System is administered in accordance with Washington state law, the City Charter and ordinances, and that all proceedings before the Commission are conducted in an orderly, fair, and timely manner. They are intended to promote the principles of civil service including assurance that appointments, promotion, and retention in City service are based on fitness, competency, and merit.

- 1.3 Presumption of Validity. The Civil Service System implemented by these rules substantially accomplishes the purpose of Chapters 41.08 and 41.12 RCW. Variation from state models are based on local conditions and are intended to maintain the purposes of civil service systems, merit selection, tenure, and an independent Civil Service Commission. These rules are presumed to be valid and shall be upheld unless in direct conflict with Chapters 41.08 and 41.12 RCW.

- 1.4 Conflict. If these Rules conflict with the provisions of the City Charter, City ordinance, Washington State law, federal law or a collective bargaining agreement under chapter 41.56 RCW, the provisions of the applicable Charter, ordinance, law or agreement shall prevail, to the extent required by law. Employees covered by a collective bargaining agreement should consult that agreement to determine whether it provides procedures that must be used instead of the procedures established by these Rules, or includes rights and privileges in addition to, or in lieu of those provided in these Rules.
- 1.5 Computation of Time. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules or by any applicable statute, the day of the act or event from which the designated period of time begins shall not be included. The last day of the period shall be included unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday or a City legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Saturday, a Sunday or a City legal holiday. Any period of time may be extended by the Secretary upon written motion for extension of time to the Commission and a showing of good cause. The motion for extension of time must be filed with the Commission office prior to the end of the applicable time period. The date of notice for purpose of these rules shall be the date on which notice of an action is delivered personally to a party to a proceeding. If the recipient has a valid City of Vancouver email address or has provided an alternate email address to the Commission through its Secretary/Examiner, the notice is considered delivered upon transmission of the email. If the notice is delivered by U.S. mail, the notice is considered delivered on the date of actual receipt or three (3) days after mailing, whichever is sooner.
