

City of Vancouver, Washington

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, dementia affects thousands of individuals and families across Southwest Washington, creating a growing need for local support, education, and resources; and
- WHEREAS, HOPE Dementia Support has been a trusted leader in dementia care, providing weekly support groups, educational programs, and advocacy to ensure that people living with dementia and their care partners receive the guidance they need; and
- WHEREAS, through its local partnership with caregivers, healthcare providers, and community organizations, HOPE Dementia Support strengthens access to dementia care and fosters compassionate, informed communities; and
- WHEREAS, On this International Day of Hope, we recognize the direct impact of HOPE Dementia Support in enhancing the quality of life for community members in Southwest Washington.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Anne McEnerny-Ogle, Mayor of Vancouver, Washington, do hereby proclaim July 12th, 2025 as:

“ International Day of Hope ” in the City of Vancouver and honor HOPE Dementia Support for its local leadership in dementia care, education, and community support

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Vancouver to be affixed this 7th day of July 2025.

Anne McEnerny-Ogle

ANNE McENERNY-OGLE, MAYOR